 Investment and human rights
HomeAboutConnectionsToolsWhat's NewContact us

IHRP to present new Guide on UNGPs and investment policymaking during UNCTAD multi-year expert meeting

Home / Uncategorized / What's New / IHRP to present new Guide on UNGPs and investment policymaking during UNCTAD multi-year expert meeting

What's New?

< Previous Next >

Lab fellow challenges human rights advocates to think more creatively on investment policy reform

28/11/2019

LAB Fellows to speak at UN Annual Forum on Business and Human Rights

11/11/2019

New Case Study on human rights challenges in the construction sector in Qatar

28/10/2019

Human Rights Impact Assessments of Trade Agreements – new report from Chatham House

1/03/2019

LSE LAB at the UN Forum on Business and Human Rights

IHRP to present new Guide on UNGPs and investment policymaking during UNCTAD multi-year expert meeting

On 16 March 2016 the Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights is organising a special lunchtime session during the UNCTAD Multi-year Experts Meeting on Investment, Innovation and Entrepreneurship for Productive Capacity- building and Sustainable Development to launch the IHRP Guide on Implementing the UNGPs in Investment Policymaking. This event is a key opportunity for the IHRP to present the Guide and to engage with experts and State representatives about the UNGPs as they consider investment policy reforms at domestic, regional and multilateral levels. The panel speakers will include Lene Wendland, Adviser on Business and Human Rights OHCHR; Andrea Saldarriaga, Co-lead IHRP and Joshua Curtis, School of Law and Social Justice,

17/12/2018

University of Liverpool. The full event information is available at the link below.

Event: Can companies do business with Israeli settlements in Occupied Palestinian Territory while respecting human rights?

7/11/2018

OHCHR event information: IHRP Guide on UNGPs and Investment Policymaking

7/03/2016

Share This Story, Choose Your Platform!

Latest From Twitter

53 years ago

 LSE LAB Footer Logo

 LSE Human Rights Footer Logo

INVESTMENT & HUMAN RIGHTS PROJECT

An initiative of the Laboratory for Advanced Research on the Global Economy at the Centre for the Study of Human Rights – London School of Economics & Political Science.

RECENT POSTS

Lab fellow challenges human rights advocates to think more creatively on investment policy reform

LAB Fellows to speak at UN Annual Forum on Business and Human Rights

New Case Study on human rights challenges in the construction sector in Qatar

Human Rights Impact Assessments of Trade Agreements – new report from Chatham House